REPORT:

Visiting the Various Court of India, the Juvenile Court, and other subordinate courts offers a unique insight into the Indian legal system. At the Court of law, one can witness the judicial body in the country where important cases that have implications are heard. The grandeur of the building and the solemnity of the proceedings provide a sense of the gravity of the cases being adjudicated. Visiting the Juvenile Court allows observers to understand how the legal system handles cases involving minors. The focus is on rehabilitation and education rather than punishment, reflecting a more sensitive approach to juvenile justice. The visit included an in-depth study of the day to day functioning of the Civil and Criminal Courts, at different levels and over a vast variety of cases. Students from Balasaheb Thackeray Law College , Taloja- Phase - visited various courts during the duration of various years. Exploring other subordinate courts provides a glimpse into the workings of the lower levels of the Indian judiciary. Here, one can see a wider range of cases being dealt with, from civil disputes to criminal matters, offering a more comprehensive view of the legal process. Overall, a visit to these different courts provides a multifaceted understanding of the Indian legal system, its procedures, and its commitment to justice at various levels of the judicial hierarchy.

REPORT:

Client counselling for law students involves teaching future lawyers the skills and techniques necessary to effectively communicate with and advise clients. This type of training focuses on developing active listening skills, asking probing questions, showing empathy, and demonstrating professionalism. Law students learn how to build rapport with clients, establish trust, and manage client expectations. The goal of Ashokdada Sable Law College, Mangaon is to empower students to provide practical legal advice and guidance while maintaining ethical standards and confidentiality. Ultimately, client counselling for law students aims to prepare them for real-world interactions with clients in legal practice.

With the passing of time, the legal profession evolved and the concept of client centred counselling became an acceptable practice. The concept of client counselling or client-centred counselling involves the lawyer to assist his client in taking the decisions and not take decisions on behalf of them. Unlike other counselling, in legal counselling, the client might be looking for possible remedies for his situation.

As lawyers, our duty is to ensure that our client gets the best and nothing else and an important part of it is counselling your client properly and enabling them to make the right decisions. Client counselling is not even completely a skill, it is something that can be learned and mastered via practice.
